The Spring 2025 NYS 911 Coordinators Conference is a combined effort with NYS Office of Interoperable Communications Symposium. Due to the conference policies and guidelines that our partners at the Office of Interoperable Emergency Communications are required to follow, our time with you, our Solution Providers, will be limited. As part of these guidelines, Solution Providers will not be permitted to attend the main conference, including presentations and meetings. Exclusive Vendor Time will be held on Wednesday, April 23 at 18:00 hours. Registration and set up Wednesday after lunch (13:00ish).
